

From Pastor Jeff

“And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days.” Joel 2:28-29

“I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.” Ezekiel 36:25-27

We live in a world where the spiritual and physical realms are separated but this was not God’s plan from the beginning. At the beginning, God walked with humanity in the garden he made for them. Adam knew God face to face. After they sinned, our first parents hid themselves from God in fear and God banished them from his presence. The rest of the Bible is the story of how God, by his own initiative, set about to restore this face to face relationship, to reunite heaven and earth, the spiritual realm and the physical.

The Incarnation of Jesus was the beginning of this restoration as God came to dwell with humanity, cloaked in our own nature. On the cross, Jesus defeated the powers of sin and death, disarming them, and paid our debt of sin. His Resurrection demonstrated his victory. 40 days later, his Ascension was the moment of his enthronement, when humanity returned to the face to face presence with God. But of course, Jesus had to leave this world to be enthroned. Sin and Death still hold sway in our sphere of existence until the day of Jesus’ Return. This is why the day of Pentecost is so important for us. 10 days after his Ascension, on the Feast of Pentecost, Jesus came to dwell with us in the Person of the Holy Spirit. The outpoured Spirit took up residence in God’s people, never to leave. The Spirit lives with and in us to empower us to live for Christ in this wicked age as we wait for his Return. The beginning of the reunification of the spiritual and the physical realms was at Pentecost, as God the Spirit took up residence in the physical bodies of his people. Now every Christian has spiritual power and supernatural resources to draw on that enable us to stand against the devil and his schemes. So, let’s celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and seek to live in his power.

VILLAGE CHURCH MISSIONS

AFCI
AFCIWORLD.ORG

Ambassadors for Christ International (AFCI) was founded in 1948 on the belief that Nationals in Ministry (Christian nationals living and working in their own countries) provide the best foundation for the church to thrive and grow. The organization started in Australia when leading evangelist John Ridley and a godly building contractor became concerned about the need for biblical preaching to build up churches and penetrate the secular society.

They formed the Australian Institute of Evangelism to train young men and women in biblical truths and practical evangelism. After believers from nearby countries came to Australia to be trained, the vision spread to other parts of the world with an emphasis on building up local church leaders to more effectively reach their nations.

Each national team has its own ministry focus, but all of them are committed to the vision of AFCI, which is “Teams of Nationals accelerating the spread of the Gospel through local churches worldwide.” They believe that team ministry is always much stronger than the ministry of any one individual.

AFCI is committed to work through local churches. In some nations they are planting churches in cooperation with denominational leaders; in other nations they are walking alongside local churches to train their leaders to reach out more effectively. Their goal is to strengthen local churches because the local church is central in God’s plan to win the world for Christ.

AFCI has national ministry teams on every major continent, currently in 21 nations. The ministry does not send missionaries but works through visionary leaders already living in the countries where they currently minister.

Cambodia: 95 needy families came to an outreach event hosted by AFCI Cambodia in Kampong Thom province. Each family received a food package from AFCI, as well as a New Testament from the Gideons.
